Gratitude

Gratitude enhances all blessings. Sometimes we just don't feel grateful. We struggle to get out of bed. Begrudgingly we go to work or do our housework or regular daily routine. Smiling at others takes effort. It is hard to imagine we ever felt grateful or enthusiastic about our lives.

How do we break loose from a negative state of mind? First, we need to remember that whatever we harbor in the mind is what we put there. With concentrated effort we can be rid of it. Second, making a list of all of the blessings we can see in our lives, at this moment, will assure us of our Higher Power's love.

Sometimes we forget that we are here on earth for a purpose. When that happens, it is too easy to lose our zeal. That's normal, so let's not fret for long about it. Instead let's recapture the proper frame of mind once again by remembering we have a mission to perform. When we count our blessings it sets us in a positive and grateful piece of mind allowing a passion to develop in order to help those who find themselves in the condition of apathy. When our attitude finds itself in the positive realm, we are able to get back on the road to recovery and help others to join us along the way. -Paraphrased from 'PEACE' - a meditation booklet.

-Avalon M.

Please consider performing this important service!

WHAT ARE THE DUTIES OF THE INTERGROUP REP (IR) & REQUIREMENTS TO BE ONE?

1. Attend and participate in monthly OACFI business meetings. Meetings are held via Zoom on the second Saturday of every month at 10 am and last 1 to 1.5 hours depending on the amount of material to be covered.
2. Report back to their group all pertinent information discussed.
3. Check to ensure that their group meeting information is recorded correctly at both oa.org and oacfi.org and see that needed corrections are reported.

To the Moms

What must it be like to be the mom of a compulsive overeater? What troubles did I cause? What gray hairs am I responsible for? I love my mother dearly, she is my best friend, and by the grace of this program I am thankful that the wreckage of my past has been forgiven through prayers and amends.

To the moms of compulsive overeaters, the moms who are compulsive overeaters, and the moms-to-be battling this disease, you are seen and you are loved. One day at a time, as we walk this path together, there will always be love, support, and understanding beyond our wildest dreams.

May Toolbox Challenge

The OA Tools of Recovery help us work the Steps and refrain from compulsive overeating. The nine Tools are: a plan of eating, sponsorship, meetings, telephone, writing, literature, an action plan, anonymity, and service.

SERVICE

Sign up to be an intergroup representative (page 7).

Submit an article to the OACFI newsletter.

LITERATURE

Read and meditate on three entries about love in For Today.

Read and reflect on the AA 9th Step Promises.

TELEPHONE

Reach out to three new people this month.

Offer to call a newcomer to answer any questions they have.

WRITING PROMPTS

What does abstinence look like for me today?

What actions or behaviors bring me closer to my Higher Power?

How has working the steps changed my relationships?

In what ways am I still trying to seek approval from others?

Share your responses to newsletter@oacfi.org for a chance to be featured in next month's newsletter!

Seventh Tradition

Every OA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions. Donations help to carry the message to others with compulsive food behaviors and to help pay for literature and administrative expenses. Contributions currently come directly to OACFI from group treasurers and individuals. We encourage members to give as much as they are able.

Healing Happens

“Regardless of what happened to us before and how resentful we feel, we are adults now and responsible for our actions. We don’t have to let the past determine our future. Healing is possible.” -Twelve Step Workshop and Study Guide, pg 49

I know a lot of people in our fellowship, and most who’ve taken these Steps have healed. Some, like me, needed a little extra help through counseling. I’ve traded in baby rattle and the princess crown and have become just another bozo on the bus. I’m neither more special, nor am I on the bottom of the heap. I’m as close to normal as one of us can be.

As an addict, I’m a drama queen and tend to blow everything out of proportion. That’s not to diminish what happened to me in the past, or downplay any wrongs done to me, but this step helps me to look at my part, and change going forward. I can’t blame others today for what happens to me now. I’m a willing participant in life and have some control of what happens to me, moving forward.

I’ve removed myself from toxic environments, and that is a direct result of this inventory. When I finally could see how my job, and my marriage to an alcoholic may have contributed to compulsive eating, I became able to change how I reacted to these things. The ‘Serenity Prayer’ takes on new meaning—accepting what I cannot change, having courage to change what I can and wisdom to know the difference!

Things I Heard at Meetings

“I lean on the fellowship.”

“I ask myself, what can I do to be a kinder, gentler person each day?”

“I believe in truth, trust, and beauty.”

“Be aware of your emotions and take them to Higher Power.”

“I am so tired to be tired of myself.”

“Once abstinent, I could think for the first time.”
